Stolen Dog Found Safely in Abandoned Truck

A two-day search for “Teddy,” who was stolen, along with his owners’ truck, last Sunday, had a happy ending. The truck was stolen from Whole Foods Market in Woodland Hills with the dog inside. His owner, a Topanga woman, pleaded on television that she “just wanted to get Teddy back. Keep the truck.” She offered a $3000 reward with no questions asked, but the truck and dog were found abandoned in Westfield Topanga’s parking lot. Teddy was dehydrated but unhurt. It is unclear whether the thief abandoned the truck and the dog out of humanitarian concerns or worries about the tremendous publicity.

Amazon Grocery Going Into Woodland Hills?

Since the closing of Toys “R” Us at 6245 Topanga Canyon Blvd. in Warner Center, rumors have circulated that the property would become a grocery store. According to the Los Angeles City Planning website, a year after the toy store closing, property owner Erwin Bucy, PCG Woodland Hills LLC, proposed “tenant improvements” for the property along with a change of use from retail to supermarket. City planning approval was received for a “generic market.” Construction has been moving ahead on the 33,574-square foot building for months.

Amazon marketing executives were unable to be reached for comment, but other tenants in the center said that they have been told that the store will be a new concept Amazon grocery store, opening in November.

Amazon had previously announced that they planned on opening dozens of grocery stores in various U.S. cities.

The Wall Street Journal reported that Amazon would open its first outlet in Los Angeles by the end of this year.

Amazon, based in Seattle, has been delivering groceries online for over 10 years. Amazon Go in 2016, a cashierless convenience store offering prepared food, limited groceries and liquor. Currently they have 17 Amazon Go stores that are partly automated with customers able to check out without a cashier, using a self-checkout station.

They then bought the brick-and-mortar grocery chain Whole Foods in 2017. The $13.7 billion purchase signaled Amazon’s effort to break into the $840 billion grocery market. However, Whole Foods stocks a select group of items free from hydrogenated fats and artificial colors, flavors, and preservatives. Amazon in general stocks and sells a wider range of items.

This is not the first time Amazon was rumored to be looking at the valley. A year ago when they began their search for a new corporate headquarters, Los Angeles and even Warner Center were advanced as possible locations.

The shopping center at Topanga Canyon and Erwin Street is home to Office Depot, Citibank, Hook Burger, a hair salon, Poke bar and AT&T. Old New York Style Deli is planning an opening in the old Pizza Cookery spot by year end. More than 20 years ago Bristol Farms had a market in the center.

Toys “R” Us closed its doors in Woodland Hills at the beginning of last year as the chain emerged from bankruptcy attempting to better compete with lower-priced retailers.

Homeless Shelter Opposed by Councilman Lee

A supportive housing project proposed for 10243 N. Topanga Canyon Blvd. is facing opposition from locals - and from newly elected Councilman John Lee. Affirmed Housing Group Inc., with funds from Proposition HHH homeless housing bond, is proposing to build a 63-unit known as The Topanga Apartments. It would be the second such shelter in Los Angeles, after the Union Rescue Mission downtown. Lee said, “From conversations with constituents, it is clear that the Topanga project as presently proposed is physically out of scale with the surrounding neighborhood without adequate outreach to the businesses and families that will be most affected. I opposed the Topanga project as presently proposed and insist that developers work with communities before pursuing such efforts.”

Simi Man Fatally Shoots Mountain Lion

The mountain lion P-38 was fatally shot in the head by a Simi Valley man this summer, it was announced Tuesday. The mountain lion was collared and tracked, and park service officials received a mortality signal from the cougar on July 2. He was found with a gunshot wound to his head.

Alfredo Gonzalez was charged with killing a protected animal and vandalism of its GPS collar, according to the Ventura County District Attorney. It is illegal to kill a mountain lion without a permit. No motive for the killing was known.

Gonzalez will be arraigned in October in Ventura County.

Las Virgenes And Calabasas Enterprise

Volume 49, Number 29

Serving Calabasas Since 1963

September 12, 2019

It’s the final “Palindrome Week” of the Century!

Celebrity Hot Property and Local Real Estate Sales

See Page 12

Calabasas Film Festival Rolls Out

September 18

See Page 7

News in Brief

Simi Man Fatally Shoots Mountain Lion

The mountain lion P-38 was fatally shot in the head by a Simi Valley man this summer, it was announced Tuesday. The mountain lion was collared and tracked, and park service officials received a mortality signal from the cougar on July 2. He was found with a gunshot wound to his head.

Alfredo Gonzalez was charged with killing a protected animal and vandalism of its GPS collar, according to the Ventura County District Attorney. It is illegal to kill a mountain lion without a permit. No motive for the killing was known.

Gonzalez will be arraigned in October in Ventura County.

Stolen Dog Found Safely in Abandoned Truck

A two-day search for “Teddy,” who was stolen, along with his owners’ truck, last Sunday, had a happy ending. The truck was stolen from Whole Foods Market in Woodland Hills with the dog inside. His owner, a Topanga woman, pleaded on television that she “just wanted to get Teddy back. Keep the truck.” She offered a $3000 reward with no questions asked, but the truck and dog were found abandoned in Westfield Topanga’s parking lot. Teddy was dehydrated but unhurt. It is unclear whether the thief abandoned the truck and the dog out of humanitarian concerns or worries about the tremendous publicity.

Homeless Shelter Opposed by Councilman Lee

A supportive housing project proposed for 10243 N. Topanga Canyon Blvd. is facing opposition from locals - and from newly elected Councilman John Lee. Affirmed Housing Group Inc., with funds from Proposition HHH homeless housing bond, is proposing to build a 63-unit known as The Topanga Apartments. It would be the second such shelter in Los Angeles, after the Union Rescue Mission downtown. Lee said, “From conversations with constituents, it is clear that the Topanga project as presently proposed is physically out of scale with the surrounding neighborhood without adequate outreach to the businesses and families that will be most affected. I opposed the Topanga project as presently proposed and insist that developers work with communities before pursuing such efforts.”

Amazon Grocery Going Into Woodland Hills?

Since the closing of Toys “R” Us at 6245 Topanga Canyon Blvd. in Warner Center, rumors have circulated that the property would become a grocery store. According to the Los Angeles City Planning website, a year after the toy store closing, property owner Erwin Bucy, PCG Woodland Hills LLC, proposed “tenant improvements” for the property along with a change of use from retail to supermarket. City planning approval was received for a “generic market.” Construction has been moving ahead on the 33,574-square foot building for months.

Amazon marketing executives were unable to be reached for comment, but other tenants in the center said that they have been told that the store will be a new concept Amazon grocery store, opening in November.

Amazon had previously announced that they planned on opening dozens of grocery stores in various U.S. cities.

The Wall Street Journal reported that Amazon would open its first outlet in Los Angeles by the end of this year.

Amazon, based in Seattle, has been delivering groceries online for over 10 years. Amazon Go in 2016, a cashierless convenience store offering prepared food, limited groceries and liquor. Currently they have 17 Amazon Go stores that are partly automated with customers able to check out without a cashier, using a self-checkout station.

They then bought the brick-and-mortar grocery chain Whole Foods in 2017. The $13.7 billion purchase signaled Amazon’s effort to break into the $840 billion grocery market. However, Whole Foods stocks a select group of items free from hydrogenated fats and artificial colors, flavors, and preservatives. Amazon in general stocks and sells a wider range of items.

This is not the first time Amazon was rumored to be looking at the valley. A year ago when they began their search for a new corporate headquarters, Los Angeles and even Warner Center were advanced as possible locations.

The shopping center at Topanga Canyon and Erwin Street is home to Office Depot, Citibank, Hook Burger, a hair salon, Poke bar and AT&T. Old New York Style Deli is planning an opening in the old Pizza Cookery spot by year end. More than 20 years ago Bristol Farms had a market in the center.

Toys “R” Us closed its doors in Woodland Hills at the beginning of last year as the chain emerged from bankruptcy attempting to better compete with lower-priced retailers.
COMMUNITY

Yell “Bingo!” in Canoga Park

Canoga Park Women’s Club is hosting an evening of bingo on September 20 at 6 pm. Bingo will be held at 7401 Jordan Avenue. $20 buys you one book of 10 games. Bring your cowboy hunger for games, burgers with all the trimmings, desserts, and if you have some western style clothes, this is the time to wear them! Prizes include a variety of gift cards. Reserve early, please call Cyndy Keeley at (818) 437-2232 or email: keelscindy@hotmail.com. Reserve early, please call Cyndy Keeley at (818) 437-2232 or email: keelscindy@hotmail.com.

The Vanity Faire Fashion Show

The Vanity Faire Fashion Show, luncheon and boutique will be held on Sunday, September 22 at the Warner Center Marriott. The event will benefit Valley Women’s Center. Honoree is Dr. Dianne Harrison, President of CSUN. For tickets call 713-8700.

CALABASAS

- Call for volunteer actors!
  - The Spotlight The Arts Foundation is soliciting volunteer actors to read works by Edgar Allan Poe in its fourth bi-annual show, to be held 5 pm on Saturday, November 2, at The Calabasas Commons. Contact auditions@spotlighthearts.org or 818-725-2978.

WEST HILLS

- Volunteers are invited to join the West Hills Neighborhood Council’s Beautification Committee on Saturday, September 14, from 8 to 11 am in a Community Cleanup along Platt Avenue between Ingomar and Keswick. Participants use bags and tools supplied by the committee, chaired by Brad Vanderhoof and Faye Barta. Service credit is provided to students.

CALABASAS

- The City of Calabasas will be holding a used water based paint and oil round up at City Hall from 10 am to 2 pm. To see a list of accepted items, visit www.cityofcalabasas.com/hazard-waste.html.

SHERMAN OAKS

- The Friends in Astrology will be meeting on Wednesday, September 18 at Denny’s restaurant on the corner of Burbank and Sepulveda Boulevards at 6 pm for dinner and a lecture to start at 7:15 pm. The speaker will be Dan Khoury and the topic will be “Saturn in Capricorn, The World in Address.” For more information, call Franciscus (Cisco) Huijbregts at (661) 755-6233.

CALABASAS

- The Love to Learn Tutoring Program will start on Monday, September 16th and is on most Saturdays from 1 to 3 pm. Viewpoint Advanced Placement and Honors high school students will be tutoring elementary school age children in the Children’s Library. It is free and a drop-in program; no reservations are required. For more information and future dates, call library at 818-225-7616 or visit the website at www.calabasaslibrary.org.

WOODLAND HILLS

- Curious about how the library is supported? Come out to the Friends of the Woodland Hills Library’s monthly board meeting on Wednesday, September 18, at 10 am to find out and learn how you can help as a volunteer.

WESTLAKE VILLAGE

- Mission K9 Rescue will host a gala night and gala on Saturday, September 14th and is on most Saturdays from 1 to 3 pm. The event will be held at the Westlake Village Marriott at 3000 Westlake Village Drive. The event will benefit the Mission K9 Rescue Scholarship Fund and support the mission of K9s for Warriors. Visit www.missionk9rescue.org for information on how to RSVP and to learn how you can help.

RESEDA

- Councilman Bob Blumenfield will host “Reseda Rising” on Saturday, September 21, from 5 to 10 pm at the corner of Sherman Way and Lindley. Enjoy a SFV Zine Fest, a beer garden, art market, live music, art installations, dance, food court and more. For more information visit www.1111acc.org.

CALABASAS

- The Calabasas Rotary Club presents Veyesoo and Edris Foroughi in concert to celebrate Mehragan, on Sunday, October 6, at 2 pm. Tickets are on sale now at calabasasrotaryevents.com. The concert will be held at 27040 Malibu Hills Road.

COMMUNITY CALENDAR
PEOPLE IN THE NEWS

West Hills resident Ali Saam, right, will appear in the upcoming movie “Rogue Warfare,” due out in October. Saam plays a camp man in the action flick about elite soldiers from around the world uniting to fight a terrorist network. Saam started his theatre training at Stella Adler Conservatory of Theatre and continued at the Actors Circle Theatre. His lead role as “Tony” in “The Big Picture” was his debut in theatre, and his supporting role as Joseph Dimarco, an Italian mobster, in “Redemption” was his first film acting credit. Most recently he appeared in Ben Affleck’s Best Picture Academy Award-winning film “Argo.”

Calabasas Rotarian Bette Hall, left, recently completed a Rotary Governor Elect Training Seminar. She was honored at a celebration attended by friends and her son Michael. Hall is the Rotary District 5280 Governor Elect for the next year. A member of District 5280’s Calabasas Rotary Club since 2007, Bette Hall has held various positions, both within her Club and the District. Positions held include Club Avenues of Service and Events Chair, Board member, Club President, Assistant Governor, District Trainer for several years, and three years as the Senior Assistant Governor.

Theresa Ngo of Blinkie’s Donuts in Woodland Hills, above right, was honored by the City of Calabasas for her contributions to the Calabasas Senior Center. Ngo and her family donate not only sweet treats but also their time to the seniors in Calabasas. Presenting her with a certificate is Calabasas Mayor David Shapiro.
Word on the Street

from Kathleen Sterling

Yesterday as we observed the memory of 9/11, there were many Facebook posts about the tragedy, with photos of the twin towers, saying “Don’t forget” and “I remember.”

But what resonated with me most was the post that said “I remember 9/12.”

That was a day when we, as a nation, came together. It didn’t matter what race you were, what religion, what beliefs you held, whether you ate at Chic-fil-A or wore Nikes.

We were unified against one common enemy. We put aside our disagreements or political differences and came together.

That’s what we need to do now. In remembering 9/11 - and the days after - we need to put aside our differences and celebrate what we have 18 years later, which is freedom, family, neighbors and friends.

We are blessed to live in this country, a civilized society with voting rights, running water, abundant food - things we take for granted.

It shouldn’t take a national tragedy to bring us together as a nation.

It shouldn’t take a natural disaster such as the Woolsey Fire, an earthquake or torrential rains to bring us out to know our neighbor, to reach out a helping hand to someone in need.

We Americans are great in times of crises. We rally, raise money, volunteer, buy flags and raise them.

We should be doing this daily.

We should know our neighbors, not just for disaster relief, but for neighborhood watch, security and face it, plain old camaraderie.

I love seeing Facebook posts of block parties during the summer, where friends and neighbors congregate on a front lawn to share food, drink and news.

Events like the Canoga Park Memorial Day Parade, the chamber wine tasting or the Encino Family Festival are old fashioned fun events that bring a community together.

When remembering 9/11, we need to remember we are still a strong, one nation, under God, with liberty and justice - and concern - for all.
Five Calabasas Students Named National Merit Scholarship Finalists

Officials announced the names of approximately 16,000 semifinalists in the 65th annual National Merit Scholarship Program Wednesday, including five students from Calabasas.

Andrew Chen, Coleman M. Fujishin, Viola L. Kalinin, Mark Lowe and Abby E. Nudell are among the academically talented high school seniors who have an opportunity to compete for 7,600 National Merit Scholarships worth more than $31 million that will be offered next spring.

Semifinalists must fulfill several requirements to advance to the finalist level of the competition and to be considered for a Merit Scholarship award. More than 90% of the semifinalists are expected to attain finalist standing, and about half of the finalists will win a National Merit Scholarship, which would earn them the Merit Scholar title, the press release said.

More than 1.5 million juniors in about 21,000 high schools entered the 2020 National Merit Scholarship Program by taking the 2018 Preliminary SAT/National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test, which served as an initial screen of program entrants, the press release said.

The pool of semifinalists, which are less than one percent of high school seniors nationwide, are the highest-scoring entrants in each state.

The number of semifinalists in a state is proportional to the state’s percentage of the national total of graduating seniors, the press release said. To become a finalist, the semifinalist and a high school official must submit a detailed scholarship application, including the semifinalist’s academic record, participation in school and community activities, demonstrated leadership abilities, employment, and honors and awards received.

Each semifinalist must have an outstanding academic record throughout high school, be endorsed and recommended by a high school official, write an essay, and earn SAT or ACT scores that confirm the student’s earlier performance on the qualifying test.

It’s a “Palindrome” Week

According to Merriam-Webster, a “palindrome” is a word, verse, sentence or number that reads the same backward or forward.

Common examples of this are “racecar,” “radar,” “level” and “mom.”

If you look at your calendar today, you may notice that the date is a palindrome – and it will remain a palindrome for the next 10 days.

This phenomenon is known as “palindrome week,” and this just so happens to be the final palindrome week of the century.

From now until September 19, the dates in a standard M-DD-YY format will read the exact same way backwards.

See for yourself:

- 9/10/19 - 91019
- 9/11/19 - 91119
- 9/12/19 - 91219
- 9/13/19 - 91319
- 9/14/19 - 91419
- 9/15/19 - 91519
- 9/16/19 - 91619
- 9/17/19 - 91719
- 9/18/19 - 91819
- 9/19/19 - 91919

It’s a “Palindrome” Week

Officials announced the names of approximately 16,000 semifinalists in the 65th annual National Merit Scholarship Program Wednesday, including five students from Calabasas.

Andrew Chen, Coleman M. Fujishin, Viola L. Kalinin, Mark Lowe and Abby E. Nudell are among the academically talented high school seniors who have an opportunity to compete for 7,600 National Merit Scholarships worth more than $31 million that will be offered next spring.

Semifinalists must fulfill several requirements to advance to the finalist level of the competition and to be considered for a Merit Scholarship award. More than 90% of the semifinalists are expected to attain finalist standing, and about half of the finalists will win a National Merit Scholarship, which would earn them the Merit Scholar title, the press release said.

More than 1.5 million juniors in about 21,000 high schools entered the 2020 National Merit Scholarship Program by taking the 2018 Preliminary SAT/National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test, which served as an initial screen of program entrants, the press release said.

The pool of semifinalists, which are less than one percent of high school seniors nationwide, are the highest-scoring entrants in each state.

The number of semifinalists in a state is proportional to the state’s percentage of the national total of graduating seniors, the press release said. To become a finalist, the semifinalist and a high school official must submit a detailed scholarship application, including the semifinalist’s academic record, participation in school and community activities, demonstrated leadership abilities, employment, and honors and awards received.

Each semifinalist must have an outstanding academic record throughout high school, be endorsed and recommended by a high school official, write an essay, and earn SAT or ACT scores that confirm the student’s earlier performance on the qualifying test.

It’s a “Palindrome” Week

According to Merriam-Webster, a “palindrome” is a word, verse, sentence or number that reads the same backward or forward.

Common examples of this are “racecar,” “radar,” “level” and “mom.”

If you look at your calendar today, you may notice that the date is a palindrome – and it will remain a palindrome for the next 10 days.

This phenomenon is known as “palindrome week,” and this just so happens to be the final palindrome week of the century.

From now until September 19, the dates in a standard M-DD-YY format will read the exact same way backwards.

See for yourself:

- 9/10/19 - 91019
- 9/11/19 - 91119
- 9/12/19 - 91219
- 9/13/19 - 91319
- 9/14/19 - 91419
- 9/15/19 - 91519
- 9/16/19 - 91619
- 9/17/19 - 91719
- 9/18/19 - 91819
- 9/19/19 - 91919

It’s a “Palindrome” Week

Officials announced the names of approximately 16,000 semifinalists in the 65th annual National Merit Scholarship Program Wednesday, including five students from Calabasas.

Andrew Chen, Coleman M. Fujishin, Viola L. Kalinin, Mark Lowe and Abby E. Nudell are among the academically talented high school seniors who have an opportunity to compete for 7,600 National Merit Scholarships worth more than $31 million that will be offered next spring.

Semifinalists must fulfill several requirements to advance to the finalist level of the competition and to be considered for a Merit Scholarship award. More than 90% of the semifinalists are expected to attain finalist standing, and about half of the finalists will win a National Merit Scholarship, which would earn them the Merit Scholar title, the press release said.

More than 1.5 million juniors in about 21,000 high schools entered the 2020 National Merit Scholarship Program by taking the 2018 Preliminary SAT/National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test, which served as an initial screen of program entrants, the press release said.

The pool of semifinalists, which are less than one percent of high school seniors nationwide, are the highest-scoring entrants in each state.

The number of semifinalists in a state is proportional to the state’s percentage of the national total of graduating seniors, the press release said. To become a finalist, the semifinalist and a high school official must submit a detailed scholarship application, including the semifinalist’s academic record, participation in school and community activities, demonstrated leadership abilities, employment, and honors and awards received.

Each semifinalist must have an outstanding academic record throughout high school, be endorsed and recommended by a high school official, write an essay, and earn SAT or ACT scores that confirm the student’s earlier performance on the qualifying test.

It’s a “Palindrome” Week

According to Merriam-Webster, a “palindrome” is a word, verse, sentence or number that reads the same backward or forward.

Common examples of this are “racecar,” “radar,” “level” and “mom.”

If you look at your calendar today, you may notice that the date is a palindrome – and it will remain a palindrome for the next 10 days.

This phenomenon is known as “palindrome week,” and this just so happens to be the final palindrome week of the century.

From now until September 19, the dates in a standard M-DD-YY format will read the exact same way backwards.

See for yourself:

- 9/10/19 - 91019
- 9/11/19 - 91119
- 9/12/19 - 91219
- 9/13/19 - 91319
- 9/14/19 - 91419
- 9/15/19 - 91519
- 9/16/19 - 91619
- 9/17/19 - 91719
- 9/18/19 - 91819
- 9/19/19 - 91919

It’s a “Palindrome” Week

Officials announced the names of approximately 16,000 semifinalists in the 65th annual National Merit Scholarship Program Wednesday, including five students from Calabasas.

Andrew Chen, Coleman M. Fujishin, Viola L. Kalinin, Mark Lowe and Abby E. Nudell are among the academically talented high school seniors who have an opportunity to compete for 7,600 National Merit Scholarships worth more than $31 million that will be offered next spring.

Semifinalists must fulfill several requirements to advance to the finalist level of the competition and to be considered for a Merit Scholarship award. More than 90% of the semifinalists are expected to attain finalist standing, and about half of the finalists will win a National Merit Scholarship, which would earn them the Merit Scholar title, the press release said.

More than 1.5 million juniors in about 21,000 high schools entered the 2020 National Merit Scholarship Program by taking the 2018 Preliminary SAT/National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test, which served as an initial screen of program entrants, the press release said.

The pool of semifinalists, which are less than one percent of high school seniors nationwide, are the highest-scoring entrants in each state.

The number of semifinalists in a state is proportional to the state’s percentage of the national total of graduating seniors, the press release said. To become a finalist, the semifinalist and a high school official must submit a detailed scholarship application, including the semifinalist’s academic record, participation in school and community activities, demonstrated leadership abilities, employment, and honors and awards received.

Each semifinalist must have an outstanding academic record throughout high school, be endorsed and recommended by a high school official, write an essay, and earn SAT or ACT scores that confirm the student’s earlier performance on the qualifying test.
Tarzana Celebrates Centennial Weekend of Fun

Every weekend this September, celebrations will be held along Ventura Blvd. between Reseda Blvd and Crebs/Burbank for the city’s centennial year.

Along the Tarzana Safari Walk, a slew of fun activities for all ages will take place including music, dancing, a live animal show, historical walks and more!

Local businesses will be hosting many of the listed activities with the Encino-Tarzana Library hosting historical lectures on the detailed history of the town you call home.

On Saturday, September 14, enjoy a noon walk with Willard Simms to find Tarzana’s historical roots. Meet at AT&T.

From 1 to 3 pm visit the exotic animal show next to the 76 station at Reseda Blvd. Color in the Tarzana Mural at Whole Foods from 1 to 4, or get your portrait drawn in six minutes at Chase Bank.

From 1 to 4 pm practice your Tarzan yell with the band at T.J. Maxx or listen to a DJ play music from Tarzan films at the Hypnosis building, 18607 Ventura.

At 2 pm meet 2019’s Tarzan and Jane at LA Fitness or find out what Tarzana was like 100 years ago at Tarzana Village 18717 Ventura. Tracy Scott Griffen from the Edgar Rice Burroughs Foundation will give the talk.

On Sunday, September 14, join A Faery Hunt meet and greet at Tarzana Village.

From 1 to 4 pm you can practice your Tarzan yell, hear a DJ play music from the films or enjoy face painting and balloon twisting at the Hypnosis building.

For a list of full activities, dates and times, visit tarzanasafariwalk.com.

Mayor’s Lunch
September 18

The annual Mayor’s Lunch hosted by United Chambers of Commerce will be held on Wednesday, September 18 at 11 am. The lunch will be held at the Warner Center Marriott, 21850 Oxnard Street, Woodland Hills. Tickets are $65 per person. To purchase tickets call Marian at United Chambers offices at 789-4711.
Athleta Celebrates Girl Power

Calling all Athleta girls! Get your body moving with this fun, strength building class taught by Athleta’s brand ambassador, Ashle’ on Sunday, September 15, from 10 to 11 am at the Village! Work together and empower each other to build up confidence and power through fitness, dance, and games to get your sweat on! Call the store at 818-702-0039 for any questions!

Calabasas Film Festival!

Immerse yourself in the heart of film at the 6th Annual Calabasas Film Festival from September 18 to 22! A female-led non-profit offering hand-selected films, cocktail hours, VIP parties and more. This five-day event takes place in the heart of Calabasas, showing a variety of motion pictures like independent features, documentaries, world cinema, shorts and local student films. With catered after parties, movie lovers can mix and mingle with other avid film-goers, studio executives and key players in the entertainment industry. For more info and a detailed schedule, visit calabasasfilmfestival.com

Calabasas Library Book Club

Join the Calabasas Library for their monthly book club on Tuesday, September 17, at 6 pm. The book being discussed is Ordinary Grace by William Kent Krueger. While membership in the book club is free, a valid library card is required to participate. For more information, please email Barbara Lockwood at blockwood@calabasaslibrary.org or call the library at 818-225-7616.

Fancy Yourself a Foodie?

Celebrate 47 Years of Sur La Table

Celebrate Sur La Table’s 47th anniversary with a few of their classic dishes at an in-store cooking class on Sunday, September 15 at 4 pm. Try a take on coq au vin using a French white wine and practice creating lusciously creamy potatoes with plenty of butter and roasting green beans with a lemon and herb vinaigrette. Plus, learn how to fold together ingredients for a show-stopping dessert: perfectly risen chocolate soufflé. Class is $47 per person and runs for approximately two to two and a half hours. Tickets can be booked on surlatable.com under the Woodland Hills location. Bon appetit!

Fall is for Football!

Celebrate the new season and the return of football with some delicious sweet treats! Available Saturdays and Sundays at SusieCakes at the Village in September, football frosted cookies are available individually or as a party platter of 18 cookies. Not a football fan? Celebrate the transition into fall with seasonal favorites German chocolate cake, carrot cake cupcakes, apple crumble pie and more! Stop into the store or call (818) 805-2253 to order today!
Prepare to be scared!! Universal Studios Hollywood’s Halloween Horror Nights is back and spookier than ever! After having kicked off on Friday the 13th (how appropriately on theme!), guests are invited to explore the myriad of mazes, scare zones and themed haunted houses guaranteed to make you scream!

Perhaps the most anticipated factor this year is the debut of a new maze based on the critically acclaimed movie “Us” from the mind of Jordan Peele. Featuring the unnerving labyrinth of underground tunnels that stretch from coast to coast below America, to the disorienting and the ominous uprising of “The Tethered”— doppelgängers of every living man, woman and child in the country—the “Us” maze will place guests at the heart of this living nightmare where they quickly realize they are their own worst enemy.

The Netflix hit of the summer, “Stranger Things” will also make its return to Horror Night with a new maze highlighting the best moments of season two and three of the supernatural thriller. Come face to face with the shadowy Mind Flayer and its army of creatures set on wreaking havoc in Hawkins.

Other mazes include “Frankenstein Meets Wolf Man,” a true throw back to monster movies of Universal fame, “Holidayz in Hell,” demented versions of your favorite seasonal celebrations, permanent attraction “Walking Dead” and much more!

Halloween Horror Nights is even celebrating “Throwback Thursdays” with special 80’s themed nights every Thursday during this event in case you need a quick break from monster mayhem to groove out to your favorite nostalgic hits. Don your best leg warmers and neon garb to moonwalk all night long! Those looking to further escape, or at least try, to escape the scare zones can visit select ride attractions that will be open during Horror Nights, including the brand new Jurassic World ride that debuted this summer.

To buy tickets and read more about the exclusive events on offer as well as exciting updates, visit Hollywood.HalloweenHorrorNights.com, like Halloween Horror Nights – Hollywood on Facebook; follow @HorrorNights #UniversalHHN on Instagram, Twitter and Snapchat. Halloween Horror Nights is held on select nights through November 3.
Blue Dog Beer Tavern Celebrates 10 Years and Raises Funds for K9 Search Dog

Locals, firefighters, firefighter feeders and more came together to celebrate Blue Dog’s 10th anniversary! To mark the special occasion, the beer tavern, in conjunction with Firestation 88, held a fundraiser to raise money to train a new search dog in memory of fallen search dog “Journey.” With their famous grub on the grill and special shirts being sold to commemorate the anniversary, Blue Dog Beer Tavern partied for a good cause. Some of Journey’s rescue paraphernalia will hang in memoriam at the Blue Dog to entice further charitable donations to the LA Fire Foundation and “Journey” shirts will also continue to be on sale to continue the fundraising efforts.
Health & Wellness Update

Slight Drop in Drug Overdose Deaths

By Janey M. Rifkin

The statistics are preliminary, but they appear to have “fallen” for the first time in nearly three decades. Opioid deaths have risen every year in this country during that time frame, but the Centers for Disease Prevention and Control has released provisional figures for 2018 - the final tally should not exceed 69,000. But, the overdose death rate is still about seven times higher than it was a generation ago.

“Still a very sad situation that we are faced with,” stated Rebecca Haffajee, a behavioral health researcher at the University of Michigan. (It takes weeks and months for toxicology tests in drug-related deaths to be completed.)

The origin of the epidemic is linked to 1995 and the marketing of the prescription painkiller OxyContin. It was thought to be more effective than other drugs – but some patients became hooked. Drug abusers found they could crush the tablets and snort or inject them to get high. In time, more addicts turned to cheaper street drugs such as heroin and fentanyl. By the year 2015, heroin began causing more deaths than other prescription painkillers or other drugs.

In 2016, fentanyl became the deadliest drug – and street drugs were by then being mixed by amateurs and sold on the

(Continued on page 15)

Huge Changes Coming to Medicare

By Paul Davis

HUGE changes are coming to Medicare plan finder at the last minute. This could be a problem.

A possible solution: CMS needs to postpone the retirement of the current plan finder until after the Annual Election Period and then implement with changes for next year. I’ve already put a call into my congressman, even though I’ve been told by CMS that this is a “done deal.”

We learned only recently that Medicare.gov is changing their plan finder effective October 1 2019.

This is only two weeks before the Annual Election Period (October 15 to December 7). We are always concerned when we see a massive new system being introduced right before the busiest time of year. We also do not see that there has been adequate time given to get feedback on this new site and address its shortcomings and flaws. It does not look like this has been properly thought through. This is a recipe for a truly horrific mess.

Medicare.gov is changing their plan finder effective October 1.

The current Plan Finder has been around since 2006 and has proven to be an invaluable tool for Medicare beneficiaries and agents in helping to shop for Part D and Medicare Advantage plans. With the current Plan Finder you have the ability to save your drug list in an anonymous manner and update it yearly.

This has made it possible for agents such as myself to offer to help our clients shop and choose the most appropriate Part D or Medicare Advantage plan every year based on their drug costs.

The new system will not allow us to enter drugs and save the list. We will no longer have access to the lists we saved this year and last year. And each time something changes we have to input the entire drug list again.

Part of this new platform seems designed to force every Medicare beneficiary to create a MyMedicare.gov account. Only within the MyMedicare.gov account can you create and save a drug list.

The MyMedicare.gov account is designed for the Medicare beneficiary. There’s a user name and password and this site also contains claim information and other personally identifiable information. Several colleagues of mine and I have been trying to figure out how we can continue to help our clients shop. One possibility is that we require them to provide us access to their mymedicare.gov account. This does not seem to be the best possible solution for our clients or for us.

We have helped thousands of people shop for Part D. It is not a simple process. There is a long learning curve to figure out how best to shop and what to look for and avoid. Many of my clients, left to their own devices have made horrible choices for Part D plans causing them to massively overpay on the monthly premium or the cost of drugs. I know I’ve saved clients tens of thousands if not hundreds of thousands of dollars by shopping plans.

If you think this is important, please consider contacting your congressperson and/or forwarding this article.

Paul Davis CA licenses 0669770, 0M47932 (818) 888-0880 or visit www.pdhsure.com
Sound baths have been increasing in popularity over the years. More and more Americans are choosing to take in a sound bath rather than going out and clubbing. It healthier, and it’s certainly less expensive!

Sound has been used in the healing arts for thousands of years and modern medicine is beginning to recognize the beneficial powers of sound and the body. Most everybody knows of the experiments where plants would grow toward or away from speakers depending on the type of music being played.

Sound baths consist of a large variety of instruments including gongs, crystal singing bowls, Tibetan bowls, ocean drums, rain sticks and chimes.

The gong clears the subconscious mind of all of the garbage, or baggage, that it accumulates. The crystal bowls are tuned to each of the seven chakras. The chakras are energy centers recognized by the yogis and the health of those energy centers influences various aspects of our lives. For example, if the root chakra, located at the base of the spine, is not balanced you have a tendency to be more prone to experiencing fear and when it is balanced you are more grounded, centered and confident. Similarly, each of the seven chakras affect various aspects of your life.

Dr. Mitchel Gaynor, an oncologist and author of The Healing Power of Sound, found the benefits of healing instruments to be so substantial that he incorporated them into his healing practice.

The power of sound resonates with the human psyche. When the gong is being played the listener is acutely aware of all of the subconscious baggage that his listeners will be shedding. When playing the crystal bowls he focuses on the chakra associated with that bow and sees it lighting up and clearing so that the energy can move through it. When playing the ocean drum he will usually be repeating one mantra or another in his head, usually one of forgiveness. When playing the rain stick he visualizes divine energy flowing through the rain stick and into the person that he is playing over. When playing the chimes, he visualizes angels visiting the room.

Attendees will usually lie down, although some will sit and meditate. Many people will fall asleep.

After the 90-minute sound bath, Yogi Dave takes you through a few quick exercises of the mind in preparation for the sound bath.

When performing a sound bath, Yogi Dave focuses on yogic philosophy. When playing the gong he is acutely aware of all of the subconscious baggage that his listeners will be shedding. When playing the crystal bowls he focuses on the chakra associated with that bowl and sees it lighting up and clearing so that the energy can move through it. When playing the ocean drum he will usually be repeating one mantra or another in his head, usually one of forgiveness. When playing the rain stick he visualizes divine energy flowing through the rain stick and into the person that he is playing over. When playing the chimes, he visualizes angels visiting the room.

Attendees will usually lie down, although some will sit and meditate. Many people will fall asleep.

After the 90-minute sound bath, Yogi Dave takes you through a few quick exercises of the mind in preparation for the sound bath.

When performing a sound bath, Yogi Dave focuses on yogic philosophy. When playing the gong he is acutely aware of all of the subconscious baggage that his listeners will be shedding. When playing the crystal bowls he focuses on the chakra associated with that bowl and sees it lighting up and clearing so that the energy can move through it.
Calabasas Realty Report

By Michael Bloom

Fifty eight homes have sold in Calabasas in the last 90 days. The price range is $1,000,000-$3,000,000.

The area of Calabasas where the homes have sold includes Monte Nido, Westridge, vintage Calabasas Park (on the lake and off the lake), Mulwood (near Calabasas High School), Belagio, Calabasas Park Estates, Mountain View Estates, Vista Pointe (near Calabasas Country Club) and the Oaks. Prices remain robust in Calabasas!

Calabasas has so much to offer. From Trader Joes and Ralph's for groceries to delicious restaurants like King's seafood, Toscanova, Rosti, Sugarfish, Sagebrush Cantina, Pedalers Fork, The Six, and others.

Rick Caruso (developer of the Grove in Los Angeles and the Americana in Glendale) has made the Calabasas Commons a place to spend time at, not just a shopping center.

The Las Virgenes School District continues to be a top public school district. Graduates of Calabasas High School and Agoura High School go to the UC schools, Stanford, Cal Tech, and Ivy League schools to name a few.

It's no wonder people continue to settle and raise their families here.

Michael Bloom is with Rodeo Realty in Calabasas. He can be reached at (818) 207-2088.

Hot Property: John Travolta Dances into Calabasas

John Travolta, star of “Saturday Night Fever,” has purchased a $2.65 million Mediterranean villa in a guard-gated community in Calabasas. Built in the mid-90s on a cul-de-sac, the two-story, 7,500 square foot house sits on a half acre. It features six bedrooms, six bathrooms, four fireplaces and off-street parking for eight cars. There is a covered patio with an outdoor fireplace, indoor grilling station, infinity pool and spa.

The listing was held by Stephen Parisi, Dana Olmes and Jeff Biebuyck of Compass. The Travoltas were represented by Kim Isaacson of Berkshire Hathaway Home Services.

The two-time Oscar nominee has an already substantial residential property portfolio and a myriad of residences in Florida, Maine and Brentwood.

PAWS Volunteers Honor 9/11 at Fire Stations

In memory of 9/11 and our fallen heroes the PAWS Volunteers and their licensed therapy dogs visited six LAFD stations from Woodland Hills to Lake Balboa on Sunday, September 8th. The fourth annual PAWS for Kisses & Hugs started their kickoff at the Petsmart Canoga Park store.

There was a special appearance by Ted Shred, a famous exotic animal trainer and Hollywood stunt coordinator. The National Anthem sung by Aydiee Vaughn, actress/celebrity party planner, followed by a special presentation of certificates of appreciation by Honorary Mayor of Woodland Hills, Dennis P. Zine. Certificates were presented to Michael Wilding, GM of the Hilton Hotel-Woodland Hills, Veronica Masterrer, Petsmart manager, Mercy Alpert, community leader/Have Mercy and Everling Fermat, event photographer/Petsmart employee.

The annual event which was created by Aydiee Vaughn Dunson from BLMentertainment.
The following person(s) is (are) doing business as The Beauty Standard LA, 19634 Ventura Blvd., Tarzana, CA 91356. This business is conducted by an individual, s/Herbert George.

The following person(s) is (are) doing business as Coastal Aquatic Creations, Coastal Aquatic, 149 S. Barrington Ave. #158, Los Angeles, CA 90036. This business is conducted by a corporation, s/Linux Aquatic, Inc., 149 S. Barrington Ave., Los Angeles, CA 90036.

The following person(s) is (are) doing business as Coastal Aquatic Creations, Coastal Aquatic, 149 S. Barrington Ave. #158, Los Angeles, CA 90036. This business is conducted by a corporation, s/Linux Aquatic, Inc., 149 S. Barrington Ave., Los Angeles, CA 90036.

STATEMENT OF ADDITIONAL BUSINESS NAME

Pools by CAC, Coastal Aquatic, 149 S. Barrington Ave. #158, Los Angeles, CA 90036. This business is conducted by a corporation, s/Linux Aquatic, Inc., 149 S. Barrington Ave., Los Angeles, CA 90036.

The following person(s) is (are) doing business as Pools by CAC, Coastal Aquatic, 149 S. Barrington Ave. #158, Los Angeles, CA 90036. This business is conducted by a corporation, s/Linux Aquatic, Inc., 149 S. Barrington Ave., Los Angeles, CA 90036.

The following person(s) is (are) doing business as Coastal Aquatic Creations, Coastal Aquatic, 149 S. Barrington Ave. #158, Los Angeles, CA 90036. This business is conducted by a corporation, s/Linux Aquatic, Inc., 149 S. Barrington Ave., Los Angeles, CA 90036.

The following person(s) is (are) doing business as Coastal Aquatic Creations, Coastal Aquatic, 149 S. Barrington Ave. #158, Los Angeles, CA 90036. This business is conducted by a corporation, s/Linux Aquatic, Inc., 149 S. Barrington Ave., Los Angeles, CA 90036.

The following person(s) is (are) doing business as Coastal Aquatic Creations, Coastal Aquatic, 149 S. Barrington Ave. #158, Los Angeles, CA 90036. This business is conducted by a corporation, s/Linux Aquatic, Inc., 149 S. Barrington Ave., Los Angeles, CA 90036.
You are Cordially Invited to Attend Valley Cultural Foundation's
44th Anniversary Gala Fundraiser

Dancing with our Valley Stars

TICKETS: VALLEYCULTURAL.ORG

FRIDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 18, 2019 | 6 PM – 10 PM
Warner Center Marriott | 21850 Oxnard Street | Woodland Hills, CA 91367

Presenting Sponsor
Warner Center Marriott

Martini Bar hosted by Valley Cultural Foundation & No host Bars

Sponsorship Opportunities
Diamond Level – $3,000.00
Two (2) tables for ten (10), A Digital On Screen Ad and Recognition by the Master of Ceremonies

Gold Sponsor – $1,500.00
Table for twelve (12) and Recognition by the Master of Ceremonies

Table Sponsor – $1,100.00
Table for ten (10)

Individual Ticket – $135.00

Hosted Self Parking
RSVP by October 9, 2019
818-704-1358 or ValleyCultural.org

Back Tie Optional

818-704-1358