Countywide Household Hazardous Waste Collection Sunday

The County of Los Angeles will hold a free countywide household hazardous and e-waste collection event on Sunday, November 16. Don't be trapped by dogma - which is living with the results of other people's thinking. Don't let the noise of others' opinions drown out your own inner voice. And most important, have the courage to follow your heart and intuition. They somehow already know what you truly want to become. Everything else is secondary."

Word on the Street

----------From Kathleen Sterling

The view from the podium give you a different perspective.

As I looked out over the room at the Fernando Awards I was moved by the number of people there who truly believe in giving back.

And by the collaborative thousands of hours of service they have given to our community.

Because in the midst of suburbia, with all that we have, there are people hurting, hungry, homeless and helpless.

While working with the business community to get the Warner Center News off the ground 40-plus years ago, I realized there was another strata altogether in the area – groups of people working with those in need.

So I began to work with those groups as well.

I grew up with parents who gave back. I remember gluing felt banners together for church, bringing food to a multi-denominational seder. Hosting a foreign exchange student. Working as a Ticktocker with National Charity League at the Crippled Children's Society in Woodland Hills.

So I learned from mom and dad.

My first effort as an adult was Pacific Lodge – when I was on the board it was for boys in trouble – now it's helping get trafficked girls out of trouble.

The Heart Run & Walk – one of the best volunteer efforts I ever had – working with the James R Gary gang: John Moriarty, Phil Sidenberg, Cindy Libonati, Deirdre Hollenbeck, plus Lysa Barry and Michael Miller. We worked hard, had a lot of fun and raised over a million dollars for the American Heart Association. Pass the Turkey, where Mark Blackman and I collected turkeys for residential charities.

And there have been so many amazing people and amazing groups I worked with – Rotary, Valley Women's Center, Haven Hills, Valley Cultural Center, Operation Gratitude, Ovarian Cancer Circle.

They are all staffed with volunteers who believe the same ethos - to donate what we can when we can.

Some in the audience at the Fernando Awards were very wealthy. Many were ordinary working people. But they were all there because of a common spirit, a belief in building a better community for all of us.

For some it's money. For some it's time. It all adds up and it's all needed.

There's an old question about what you'd do if you won the lottery. I think one of the biggest joys in life would be to give money away. To be able to afford to help others because you yourself have so much.

Elon Musk could give away one billion of his $500 billion and end homelessness. He'd never miss it - and could help so many.

Melinda Gates believed it. After her divorce from Bill Gates she pledged over $1 billion in philanthropy, some of which ended up here at our own West Valley Boys & Girls Club.

None of us are at that level. But we can all do what we can. I truly believe I have been given so many blessings - family, friends, health, a job I love that can effect change - that it is my responsibility to help those who haven't been as blessed.

I have been hands on with most of these organizations – as have many in the audience – calling, working schlepping, making party favors, centerpieces, mailers, booths, booths and more booths.

One of the best things about this was that I was able to raise my daughter Katie to do the same – to feel a sense of responsibility towards those less fortunate. She started in a stroller at the Heart Run, moved up to stuffing envelopes, and in later years running the whole damn fashion show for Valley Women's Center.

But also through the papers I have been blessed to have a vehicle to promote all these non profits. I sat down this week and thought about it and realized that over these 40 years we've literally donated millions of dollars in ad space and editorial to promote these groups, their events and their programs.

It comes with being part of a community. It comes with being part of THIS community. We are all successful in our own way - so we all need to give back in our own way.

I was truly proud to be honored with Fernando's Impact Award.

But I am most proud to be a part of a community that believes in such an award – that recognizes that we are a residential community, a business community – but also a caring community.

If you're going to publish Dennis Zine's frothing and unsupported description of Democratic Socialism goals ("destroying the USA"), you should at least allow equal time to an intelligent commentator to discuss the publicly available Project 2025 goals promoted by Trump collaborators and explain how concentrating power in one person is in reality destruction of the USA.

Colmenares Stafford Wins Fernando

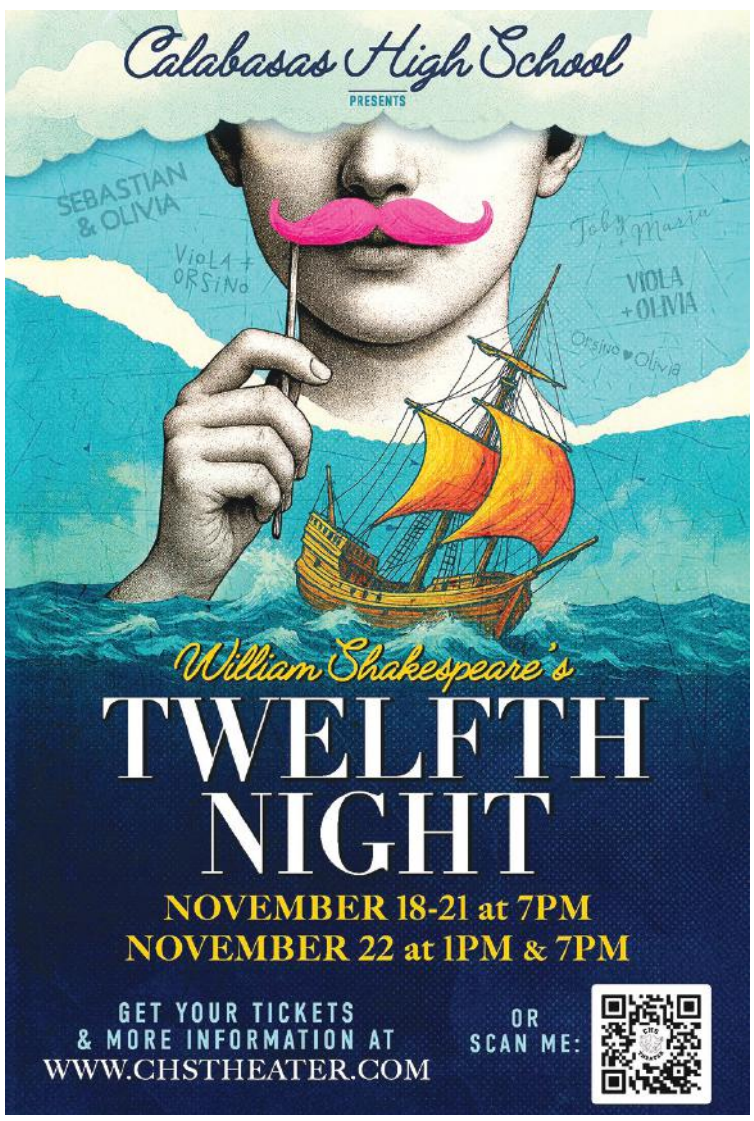
(2023) and recognition by the Los Angeles Business Journal as one of the Valley 200 Most Influential Leaders since 2021.

"Armida's unwavering belief in the power of education and connection has transformed lives and strengthened our community," said Vahid Khorsand, Chair of the Fernando Awards Foundation. "Being honored with the Fernando Award means so much to me because I now join a family of outstanding, dedicated San Fernando Valley volunteer legends who have shaped our community for good with their love and dedication," said Colmenares-Stafford.



L.A. Opera Presents La Boheme

LA Opera's 40th Anniversary Season continues with a revival of its beloved Herbert Ross production of La Bohème, conducted by Resident Conductor Lina González-Granados. Giacomo Puccini's heartbreaking romance will have six performances from November 22 through December 14.

In the opera classic that inspired the smash hit musicals Rent and Moulin Rouge!, six lively bohemians experience exhilarating joy and irretrievable loss among the evocative rooftops, cafés and garrets of Paris.

From its 1896 premiere to the present day, Puccini's blockbuster opera has captivated generations of music lovers, its transcendent score awash in lavish Romanticism and gorgeous melodies. Rodolfo is a struggling poet reduced to burning his manuscripts to keep out the winter chill. Mimì is a fellow tenant with big dreams and a deadly illness. A chance encounter has them falling in love, but when you're at the bottom of Parisian society, every day could be your last.

"La Bohème has long been a touchstone for every opera company—and for me, personally," said Christopher Koelsch, LA Opera's President and CEO. "It remains unmatched in its ability to welcome new audiences into the art form while continuing to move those of us who've loved it for decades. Early in my time at LA Opera, a colleague—having caught me quietly weeping at the end of yet another performance—told me that if I ever stopped being moved by Bohème, it would be time to leave the business. Nearly 30 years later, I'm still here, and still undone by the same moment every time. Herbert Ross's production, created for LA Opera more than three decades ago, has captivated tens of thousands not just here in Los Angeles, but around the world. Bringing it back to our stage this season feels both like a homecoming and a reaffirmation of everything that makes Puccini's masterpiece endure."

Janai Brugger and Oreste Cosimo star as Mimi and Rodolfo in La Boheme.

The brilliant cast features two sopranos enjoying major success after early training with LAO's Domingo-Colburn-Stein Young Artist Program. Janai Brugger will make her role debut as Mimì, after previous company appearances including Musetta in La Bohème (2012 and 2016), Pamina in The Magic Flute (2013), Servilia in The Clemency of Titus (2019) and Susanna in The Marriage of Figaro (2023). Erica Petrocelli will reprise the role of Musetta, which she previously performed in LAO's 2019 production of La Bohème. Her leading appearances with the company also include the title role in Matthew Aucoin's Eurydice (2020), Donna Clara in The Dwarf (2024) and Fiordiligi in Così fan tutte (2025).

The four Bohemian roommates will all be performed by singers making their first LA Opera appearances. Italian tenor Oreste Cosimo will make his U.S. debut as Rodolfo. South Korean baritone Gihoon Kim will perform the role of Marcello, Chinese bass William Guanbo Su will portray Colline, and American baritone Emmett O'Hanlon will appear as Schaunard.

Baritone Rod Gilfry, who made his professional operatic debut in the company's inaugural production of Otello in 1986, will appear as both Benoît and Alcindoro, his respective 38th and 39th roles at LA Opera.

Tickets begin at $37 and can be purchased online at LAOpera.org, by phone at (213) 972.8001, or in person at the LA Opera box office at the Dorothy Chandler Pavilion (135 N. Grand Avenue, Los Angeles CA 90012).

A Breath of Hope: Northridge Hospital Emphasizes Life-Saving Lung Screenings and Advanced Care

As November marks Lung Cancer Awareness Month, Dignity Health - Northridge Hospital Medical Center (NHMC) is urging its community to prioritize lung health through proactive steps and early detection. Lung cancer remains the leading cause of cancer death among both men and women. NHMC is empowering neighbors with vital information and access to advanced, hospital-based care.

Lung cancer accounts for more deaths than colon, breast, and prostate cancers combined. In California, an estimated 16,000 new cases were diagnosed in 2024 (American Cancer Society - ACS). Often diagnosed at advanced stages, early detection through effective screening is critically important for improving outcomes.

"Lung Cancer Awareness Month is a crucial time to spotlight this devastating disease and emphasize the life-saving power of early detection," said Dr. Ramyar Mahdavi, MD, interventional pulmonologist at NHMC. "While smoking is the primary risk factor, it's essential to remember that anyone can get lung cancer. We are committed to educating the public about all risks and ensuring our community has access to advanced screening and treatment options."

NHMC provides personalized lung cancer services

Northridge Hospital will host the Breathe Easy Walk to raise awareness about lung cancer prevention on November 18.

in the San Fernando Valley, integrating specialty care with a deep commitment to human kindness and clinical excellence, including state-of-the-art low-dose CT (LDCT) scans for eligible high-risk individuals to detect abnormalities early, advanced imaging and biopsy techniques that lead to accurate, timely diagnoses, and multidisciplinary teams with oncologists, pulmonologists, radiologists, and surgeons.

Californians can take proactive steps toward a healthier life, such as understanding your risk by discussing your personal and family history with your primary care physician, considering screening, especially if you meet criteria for high-risk screening, and recognizing symptoms like a persistent cough, shortness of breath, chest pain, unexplained weight loss, and fatigue.

"Early detection dramatically improves outcomes for lung cancer patients," emphasized Dr. Mahdavi. "We urge everyone between ages 50-80 who have risk factors to be proactive with their lung health, engage in conversations with their doctor, and take advantage of the community education and hospital-based resources NHMC offers."

NHMC will host the Breathe Easy Walk to raise awareness about lung cancer prevention and early detection. Open to the general public, the event begins at the hospital's main entrance on Tuesday, November 18, at 12 pm.

For more information, please call (818) 700-5686, and visit dignityhealth.org/socal/cancer to learn more about lung cancer, screening, and treatments.

TSA Holiday Travel Tips

As millions travel throughout airports this holiday season, it's imperative to pack diligently to avoid being picked out of the dreaded TSA security line.

As per usual, exercise caution when packing liquids and foods for transport. Your grandma's traditional fruitcake? Safe to put in your carry on. As are stuffing, casseroles, sweets and frozen, cooked or uncooked meats.

Your famous holiday cranberry sauce? Must be packed. Any liquids (such as gravy, alcohol, dips, etc.) over 3.4 oz must be put in your checked luggage.)

When in doubt if your food can fly as a carry-on, put it in your checked luggage to avoid possibly having to throw it away at security. "If you can spill it, spray it, spread it, pump it or pour it," it's not eligible for carry-on.

For those bringing presents to their intended destination, the TSA advises individuals to not wrap their gift before packing it in either their carry-on or checked luggage. If an item gets flagged by security, the TSA will have to unwrap your gift to see what lies beneath the paper. This risks you having your carefully wrapped materials no longer able to be used and even slowing you down on your way to your flight. If you must wrap a gift before traveling, the TSA advises that you use a gift bag for easy access if needed.

Given the current government shutdown, airline personnel are stressing that individuals give themselves plenty of time to arrive at the airport, go through security and find their gate. With the Federal Aviation Administration also recently restricting flight capacity, thousands of flights have been canceled. While the government shutdown may be ending soon, the effects of it are likely to stretch into the Thanksgiving holiday. Between the limited staff and the influx of holiday travelers, the airport can get chaotic quickly.

Plan accordingly, give yourself more time than you usually would carve out for the airport and continue to check your flight status with your airline for the latest updates.

Grateful Hearts Honors LAFD and LAPD

The Fire Department set up the giant flag to welcome visitors to the Grateful Hearts festival at the site of the new Rams Village.

CHP Officers Perry and Hendry brought several vehicles to display.

The West Valley Warner Center Chamber of Commerce held their annual Grateful Hearts festival last Sunday to raise funds for local police and fire stations.

It was held at the site of the new Rams Village (the old Anthem property) and featured information booths, police, fire and SWAT demonstrations, a firefighters-cooked barbecue, a football throwing booth from the Rams and more.

One hundred percent of the net proceeds go to LAPD West Valley, LAPD Topanga and LAFD Battalion 17.

Fire Station 84 on Burbank Blvd. was represented by firefighterrs McKinney, Marx and Yardanian.

Officers Call and Coffey of the Mounted Patrol division brought their team from the Metro Station to the event. The kids loved them! Mounted patrols are often used at the mall during the holiday season.

Four year old Theo came to meet his heroes.

The Rams cheerleaders were there to inspire the crowd.

NOTICE TO DEFENDANT (AVISO AL DEMANDADO): GABRIEL SANCHEZ and SUSTAINABLE LIVING HOLDINGS, INC.
YOU ARE BEING SUED BY PLAINTIFF (LO ESTÁ DEMANDANDO EL DEMANDANTE): HECTOR ROMERO AND LISA GONZALES

You have 30 CALENDAR DAYS after this summons and legal papers are served on you to file a written response at this court and have a copy served on the plaintiff. A letter or phone call will not protect you. Your written response must be in proper legal form if you want the court to hear your case. There may be a court form that you can use for your response. You can find these court forms and more information at the California Courts Online Self-Help Center (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp), your county law library, or the courthouse nearest you. If you cannot pay the filing fee, ask the court clerk for a fee waiver form. If you do not file your response on time, you may lose the case by default, and your wages, money, and property may be taken without further warning from the court.
There are other legal requirements. You may want to call an attorney right away. If you do not know an attorney, you may want to call an attorney referral service. If you cannot afford an attorney, you may be eligible for free legal services from a nonprofit legal services program. You can locate these nonprofit groups at the California Legal Services Web site (www.lawhelpcalifornia.org), the California Courts Online Self-Help Center (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp), or by contacting your local court or county bar association.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp), or by contacting your local court or county bar association.

Tiene 30 DÍAS DE CALENDARIO después de que le entreguen esta citación y papeles legales para presentar una respuesta por escrito en esta corte y hacer que se entregue una copia al demandante. Una carta o una llamada telefónica no lo protegen. Su respuesta por escrito tiene que estar en formato legal correcto si desea que procesen su caso en la corte. Es posible que haya un formulario que usted pueda usar para su respuesta. Puede encontrar estos formularios de la corte y más información en el Centro de Ayuda de las Cortes de California (www.sucorte.ca.gov), en la biblioteca de leyes de su condado o en la corte que le quede más cerca. Si no puede pagar la cuota de presentación, pida al secretario de la corte que le dé un formulario de exención de pago de cuotas. Si no presenta su respuesta a tiempo, puede perder el caso por incumplimiento y la corte le podrá quitar su sueldo, dinero y bienes sin más advertencia.
Hay otros requisitos legales. Es recomendable que llame a un abogado inmediatamente. Si no conoce a un abogado, puede llamar a un servicio de remisión a abogados. Si no puede pagar a un abogado, es posible que cumpla con los requisitos para obtener servicios legales gratuitos de un programa de servicios legales sin fines de lucro. Puede encontrar estos grupos sin fines de lucro en el sitio web de California Legal Services, (www.lawhelpcalifornia.org), en el Centro de Ayuda de las Cortes de California, (www.sucorte.ca.gov) o poniéndose en contacto con la corte o el colegio de abogados locales.
